

DECISION IS AGAINST A GENERAL STRIKE IN BOSTON

Announcement Made By President Michael J. O'Donnell of the Boston Central Labor Union—Time Is Not Now Opportune—No Announcement Made of Results of the Strike Vote—A Weekly Assessment Is Levied On the Members of All Unions For the Benefit of the Police.

Boston, Sept. 21.—The Boston Central Labor Union at a meeting today for the purpose of determining its attitude toward the police strike in this city decided against calling a general strike at this time.

The report of President Michael J. O'Donnell, on behalf of the committee of 17, which has been in charge of the situation for the Central Labor Union, that "the time is not now opportune for the ordering of a general strike" was enthusiastically accepted. No roll call of unions for or against their individual strikes was taken.

The members of the committee, President O'Donnell said, "find it advisable not to announce the organizations that have voted to participate in a general strike movement. We also wish to give a large number of other workers, who will meet with us in a few days, a chance to record themselves in favor of this action."

FORMER GERMAN EMPEROR MAINTAINS HIS SILENCE	STATE PRIMARIES IN MASSACHUSETTS TUESDAY

Amerongen, Sept. 21 (By the A. P.).—The former German emperor has refused to break his long silence so far as the public is concerned, even at the behest of the monarchist leaders of Germany. Ignatius T. Lincoln, the German agent, who was at one time a member of the British parliament and was interned during the greater part of the war, returned hastily to Berlin today with his guest, "Herr Anderson," after a conference at Bentinck castle this morning.

It was believed that Lincoln came to Amerongen for the purpose of obtaining some direct word from the former emperor which he could deliver to the Hohenzollern supporters. But if he did, the nature of it is not disclosed. Last night Lincoln informed The As-written statement: "I am sorry that I am unable to make a statement to you before my departure from Amerongen. The fact is, there is nothing to say. I came here in a private capacity and return to Berlin in a private capacity.

"If I may make a suggestion, were I in your place, I would not telegraph anything that could put official construction on my sojourn in Amerongen, as such statements would most likely be refuted by the persons with whom I have had a few pleasant chats

Lincoln apparently based high hopes on the conference today. It is known at Amerongen that while the monarchists in Germany do not consider the time ripe for any revival of the Hohenzollern claims, they have been somewhat disturbed by the reports that the former royal family seems content to settle down in Holland.

William Hohenzollern, however, while keeping in close touch with affairs, apparently has decided to pre-

During the night a score of volunteers succeeded in eluding the vigilance of the police and the navy and sailed toward Fiume on board a motorboat, while other volunteers departed in sailing boats for the same destination. In the latter party were
